

The benefits of becoming a

discover our Land

AMBASSADOR

Do you know someone who is proud to say they live, work or do business in Northumberland?

We are looking for people to support our campaign and help spread the word about our wonderful part of the world. By becoming a 'Discover our Land' ambassador, you'll help us to tell and share our stories by being involved in our exciting campaign.

As a supporter of the campaign you could benefit from:

Free PR across a range of different media

Access to networking events

Inclusion in campaign advertising campaigns

Links to your homepage on the DoL website

Inclusion in a range of opportunities - including blog features and social media campaigns

Feature on our ambassador page and on social media with a short video explaining why you do business in Northumberland, or what you love about living here.
